

CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

I hereby agree to abide by the following conditions when participating in the Multiscale Brain Research Group Meeting 2022 (hereinafter referred to as "Multiscale Meeting"), scheduled to be held online from November 25 to 27, 2022.

Article 1 (Confidential Information)

Confidential information means any and all information disclosed in presentations and handouts of the Multiscale Meeting, whether in oral or written form.

Article 2 (Confidentiality and Limited Use)

1. Multiscale Meeting participants shall strictly manage and store confidential information, without disclosing or leaking it to any third parties.

2. The obligations of confidentiality and limited use of the Confidential Information shall not apply to any information that falls under one or several of the following categories, provided sufficient evidence can be produced:

- (1) information that was already in participant's possession prior to being disclosed at the Multiscale Meeting;
- (2) information that had been previously published or in the public domain prior to being disclosed at the Multiscale Meeting;
- (3) information that had been approved for release to a third party prior to being disclosed at the Multiscale Meeting.

Article 3 (Consent)

Registering to participate in the Multiscale Meeting shall function as proof of the participant's consent to this Confidentiality Agreement.